Hi Sean,

I have lived in the Cherry Glen neighborhood for 23 years & 1 block from the Pacific School. The school as it is, is just fine the way it is presently with the amount of students & staff. Most residents in this neighborhood like the school with the size it is & are comfortable with the size it is. What concerns lots of residents is the traffic that a larger school would impact even tho its only 2 times a day. The Roseville District schools are in residential neighborhoods BUT they have parking lots that this school doesn't have.

Another concern is that Clinton Ave is used by very large delivery trucks & with 4 way stop signs on Clinton & Bonita but there are vehicles that pay no attention to stop signs. It is a regular habit of some drivers that use Clinton to bypass Riverside.

Hoping a decision that is made is positive for all concerned.

Sincerely, Suzy Upham,

A local resident
