Roseville is a remarkable city; and this election is a generational moment to protect what works while preparing responsibly for what comes next.

I'm David Nelson: a full-time single father of three children: Grace Johanna and Joseph, a local small business owner, and longtime advocate for local communities and California's small businesses.

For more than two decades, I have worked with business leaders, local governments, public safety officials, and state policymakers to solve complex problems, build coalitions, and deliver results. I understand how elections affect our neighborhoods: and how to the voice of District 2 is heard in City Hall.

As your Councilmember, I will fight for fully supported fire and public safety departments, responsible growth, strong local businesses, well-maintained streets and parks, fiscal discipline, and transparent, accessible government.

I am running to show up: at neighborhood meetings, on residents' doorsteps, with local businesses, and wherever our community needs an active advocate.

My children are growing up here. My business is here. Our lives are here. This is personal. I will serve District 2 with integrity, urgency, and the responsive leadership every family deserves.

I would be honored to earn your vote.
