Public service has been my life's work. I began my career as a firefighter in 1981, and after a nationwide search, Roseville selected me as Fire Chief in 2015. I guided the department through growth, modernization, and stronger regional partnerships. In all, I devoted 43 years to protecting the communities I served.

As chief, I responsibly managed complex budgets, directed emergency operations, and planned for crises before they happened. I will bring that same preparation, fiscal discipline, and long-term thinking to your City Council.

My priorities are safe neighborhoods and protecting the quality of life that makes Roseville home. With careful planning, Roseville can grow in a balanced way that supports today's residents by maintaining our roads, water system, parks, libraries, and trails.

Roseville gave my family a community we love. I'm honored to be endorsed by trusted leaders like Mayor Krista Bernasconi, Sheriff Wayne Woo, RCSD trustee Alisa Fong, Laborers Local 185, Roseville Fire Fighters, Roseville Police Officers Association, and more.

As your councilmember, I will show up prepared, listen to my neighbors, and always ask what more I can do for the citizens of Roseville. I'd be honored to earn your vote.
