DESIGN REVIEW PERMIT FOR A RESIDENTIAL SUBDIVISION (DRRS)

Process:

A request for a Design Review Permit for a Residential Subdivision requires one (1) public hearing before the Planning Commission. Processing time is normally six (6) to eight (8) weeks; however, it is dependent upon the number of similar requests before the City. If the permit is processed with a Tentative Subdivision Map, the processing time will coincide with the map. The applicant or the applicant's representative must be present at all public hearings to answer questions.

Submittal:

The City of Roseville Planning Division accepts applications online. For more information on the online application submittal process and to submit an application, visit the City's Development Services – Online Permitting Services (OPS) submittal page at <http://www.roseville.ca.gov/permitsonline>. Along with the online application, additional submittal information, as listed below, will be required to be uploaded and submitted. Applications shall be reviewed for compliance with the submittal requirements. Applications submitted without the required information are not required to be accepted for processing and will cause delay.
