Please provide a brief description of the work

California Green Building Standards Code (CALGreen) Part 4, Section 4.408 mandates the submission of a Waste Management Plan (WMP) for projects falling within the following criteria for both commercial and residential categories:

NON-RESIDENTIAL	RESIDENTIAL
• All new construction • All demolition projects • Any addition or alteration of 1000 sq. ft. or more • Any project with a permit valuation or estimated construction cost of over $200,000	• All new construction • All demolition projects • Any residential project increasing the building's area, volume, or size

"C&D" refers to Construction and Demolition debris. This term encompasses waste materials generated during the construction, renovation, demolition, or deconstruction activities. C&D debris typically includes materials like wood, concrete, metal, drywall, asphalt, insulation, roofing materials, and other construction-related items.
